SSAT National Conference 2017

ILLUMINATING LEARNING

30 November - 1 December Manchester

Programme

THURSDAY | Friday

School business manager strand (Friday only)

9.00 – 10.00

Registration, breakfast, networking and exhibition

Student performance - Wright Robinson College (9.00)

10.00 – 11.30

Main Stage Session

Student performance - Tudor Grange Academies Trust (10.00)

Sue Williamson, SSAT — Welcome

Graham Moore, humanutopia — Illuminating young minds

Katrina Morley, Tees Valley Education Trust — Talking Heads

Helena Marsh, Linton Village College

Diana Osagie, Courageous Leadership — Making tough decisions: having the courage of your convictions

11.40 – 12.25

Workshop sessions

Note: Workshop places are limited and will be available on a first come first served basis.

Growing grey matter: enabling research engagement to flourish

Whole school CPD through action research and experimental learning

Growing a culture of evidence informed teaching

The 'Teacher Profile': an outstanding school improvement strategy

Measure what you value, don't value what you measure

Growing a deeper learning culture for the whole school community

12.25 – 13.50

Student performance - Weston Favell Academy (12.25)

Lunch, networking and exhibition

13.50 – 14.50

Main Stage Session

Professor Phil Scraton, Queen's University Belfast

Justice for the 96': Researching Truth, Delivering Justice in the Aftermath of the Hillsborough Disaster

How Phil's experience leading research for the Hillsborough Independent Panel informs this session

15.00 – 15.45

Workshop sessions

Note: Workshop places are limited and will be available on a first come first served basis.

Developing a collaborative approach to an evidence-informed profession

SMSC and curriculum innovation

Realising new possibilities through a greater understanding of mind

Myth-busting and misconceptions of inspection

Turning mirrors into windows: Designing and implementing your curriculum intent

Literacy at the centre of the curriculum

15.45 – 16.20

Refreshments, networking and exhibition

Student performance - Sandbach High School (15.45)

16.20 – 17.30

Main Stage Session

Dame Alison Peacock, Chartered College of Teaching

Creating an evidence-informed profession

Brent Frey, Apple Education

Raising the Bar for Learning with Technology

Graham Moore, humanutopia

Illuminating young minds: what's happened

Student performance - The James Hornsby School (17.30)

17.50 – 18.30

Spotlight on...

Short, snappy 7 minute session choices for quick tips and takeaways.

A choice of 16 sessions across 4 slots.

Charter 1: Everything going on in education | Branding | Safer handling | MAT governance

Charter 2: New data regulations | Global learning | SSAT support | Formative assessment

Charter 3: Oracy and confidence | SSAT Networks | School design | Residential learning

Charter 4: Austerity budgets | Transition to secondary | Evidence and workload | KS4 accountability measures

18.30 – 19.15

Drinks Reception

An opportunity to network and collaborate. All delegates welcome.

19.15 – 23.00

Gala Dinner

With Rt Hon. David Laws, Education Policy Institute

Read more about David

Subscribe to the SSAT newsletter enter your email address Subscribe

x

Jobs Media Policies Contact

SSAT (The Schools Network) Ltd's registered address is: 5th Floor, Central House, 142 Central Street LONDON. EC1V 8AR. Registered in England and Wales.
Company registration number: 08073410
VAT number: GB 135 221 255

Follow us

© 2019 SSAT (The Schools Network) Ltd